Andrew Gale
Yorkshire County Cricket Club Captain

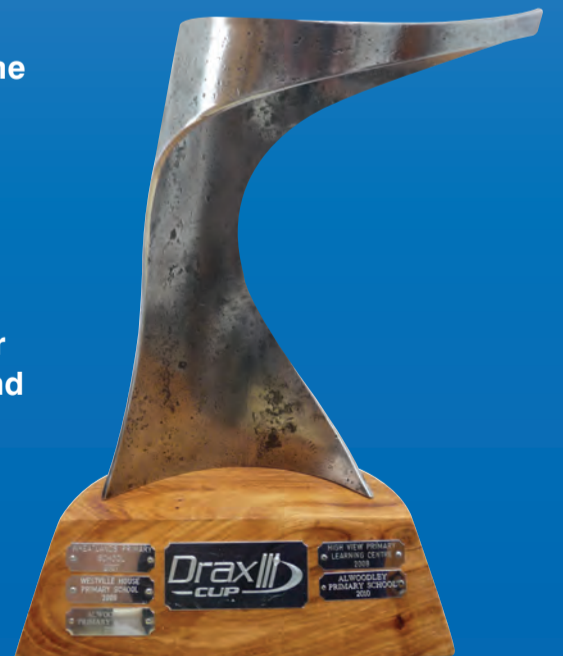

Katherine Brunt
Yorkshire and England

The Drax Cup 2012 begins after the Easter holidays and enables primary schools in Partnership areas to play competitive cricket. Four Area Winners from each of the four regions of Yorkshire play the finals at Headingley Carnegie Stadium in Leeds, one of the most famous cricket grounds in the world.

The finals take place on Sunday 8 July 2012 ahead of Yorkshire v Derbyshire in the Friends Life Twenty20 Cup. It's a sporting achievement that will live with your pupils and the school so help this dream come true and register for the Drax Cup 2012.

The Drax Cup is sponsored by Drax Power Limited and organised by The Yorkshire County Cricket Club in conjunction with the Yorkshire Cricket Board and Yorkshire Schools' Cricket Association.
